

NEW NORMAL HOME HEALTH AIDE UPSKILLING PROGRAM

Are you a home health aide that is out of work due to Covid-19?

Take the next step on your career path and apply for FREE Nursing Aide Training

Here are some great reasons to become a nurse aide:

You can get trained in 6-12 weeks

Home health aides already have many of the skills to be a nurse aide! By enrolling in a full-time or part-time program, you can receive the additional training you need to be placed on the nurse aide registry in Pennsylvania.

The job outlook is positive

Nursing aide employment opportunities in Southeastern Pennsylvania are plentiful and growing. The position was growing faster than average before the Covid-19 pandemic, which increased demand for nurse aides even more.

There are more opportunities to grow

As a nursing aide, you will be able to provide critical care to diverse populations. You will also interact with colleagues in the healthcare field, helping you find other ways you may want to advance your career even further!

Eligibility Requirements

- You must be a City of Philadelphia resident
- You must be able to pass the admissions test
- You must have recent employment experience as a home health aide
- You cannot have any disqualifying felonies or misdemeanors
- You must have a high school diploma or equivalent
